CITY ITEMS.

How to Gain in Weight.

A gentlemen, rather remarkable for his obesity, was asked where he obtained his meals, as the bill of fare must be exceedingly good, since he appeared to be growing larger and larger every day. The prompt reply was, "At the Continental Saloon, next door to the Postoffice, on Fifth street, which is kept by that prince of epicures—Holzheimer." The answer was pert and to the point, for at the Continental the best meals to be obtained in the city are daily served up at the most reasonable of prices. Game—the rarest, steaks, fish, and everything to tempt the palate, are served up in a better style than could Professor Blot indicate, and if you eat one meal gotten up by Holtzheimer at a few minutes notice, you will forever bestow your patronage on this place alone.

The Immortal And famous shoe establishment of Pittsburgh, Gardiner's Opera House Shoe Store, is about changing its base, and is going into the wholesale trade; consequently are compelled to close out present stock, or else box it up and store it away, which we do not wish to do, preferring to sell for nearly nothing, as we are now doing—in fact, will take whatever a customer may offer; just think of it; ain't it wonderful, and certainly one-sided, as the purchaser has all the advantage! This grand closing out sale will continue for the next SIXTY DAYS, and positively no longer.

Death of William M. Wills.

We are pained to announce the death of William M. Wills, Esq., which occurred at his residence, in the Ninth ward, on Tuesday. The deceased has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, as engineer, since the advent of the first car into the city, and as an evidence of the esteem in which the company held him, a year or more ago he was appointed to the highly responsible post of Superintendent of the Motive Power of the Western division of the road, the duties of which he discharged in a highly satisfactory manner. Mr. Wills was for a number of years a member of the Select Council, from the Ninth ward, and held a high rank in that body. He was justly esteemed for his many good qualities both of heart and head, and leaves a wife, family and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn his death. Typhoid fever was the disease of which he died.

THE RIVER CONVENTION.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS AND ADJOURNMENT.

Improvement of the Mississippi and Ohio the Primary Object of the Convention.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPNED AND A MEMORIAL COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

ST. LOUIS, February 13.—The River Convention re-assembled this morning at ten o'clock, President McPherson in the Chair. A large number of delegates appeared, who had arrived since yesterday's session.

Mr. Barton Able, of the Committee on Organization, announced the following named gentlemen as the Committee on Resolutions:

Indiana, Charles H. Menken, A. F. Wemple; Pennsylvania, R. C. Gray, Major Joseph Knapp; Minnesota, E. D. Williams, W. D. Washburne; Illinois, William Eggleston, Oliver C. Skinner; Tennessee, W. B. Gaw, H. Hiner; Ohio, Theodore Cook, A. L. Goshorn; Wisconsin, R. C. Libby, Major E. Paine; Missouri, Judge Samuel Treat, James B. Eads; Louisiana, M. Jeff. Thompson, E. E. Briggs; Kentucky, P. H. Walfolk, B. C. Live; Michigan, James F. Joy, A. W. Copeland; Iowa, General H. T. Reed, H. W. Star.

The Chairman of the Committee on Credentials reported a corrected list of delegates, which occupied a long time.

General Vandever, of Iowa, moved that Mr. J. E. Abbott, of Pa., who had been engaged as a Civil Engineer with General Wilson, in the survey of the Upper Mississippi, be requested to address the convention, giving such information in relation to the survey as he saw fit. Adopted.

Mr. Abbott entered into a detailed statement of the surveys made by General Wilson and the Engineer Corps, abounding in figures from which we obtain the following abstract: The features of the Upper and Lower Rapids differ, in the matter, that although the same volume of water passes over each, the Upper Rapids are only two thousand feet wide, while the Lower Rapids are five thousand feet wide, and thus the water at the Lower Rapids is shallow and necessitates a different method of improvement at the Lower Rapids. It follows that the Lower Rapids must be improved by a canal, six miles and seven-tenths in length, and six hundred feet wide, with two lift-locks, in which the velocity of current will be one mile per hour, affording a large water power which could only be contracted by the passage of twenty-four boats through the canal each hour. The Upper Rapids on the contrary has deep water, comparatively, and can be improved by cutting out the natural channel; in doing which, the largest excavation would be at Moline Chain, where would occur the phenomena of rather retarding than increasing the volume of water at the same time that the channel would be widened, because the inclined plane would be extended and the rapidity of the current will be lessened. These positions were sustained by a minute statement of the surveys, in the course of which Mr. A. stated the cost of the work at the Upper Rapids at $750,000, and by making the improvement there as suggested, and not by canal, $2,750,000 would be saved, which would nearly defray the cost of constructing a canal at the Lower Rapids, where such improvement is absolutely necessary.

Much discussion was had in referring matters to the different committees, when, upon motion, Professor Waterhouse, of St. Louis, was invited to take the stand. He proceeded to read a paper, involving the whole question of river improvement. The Convention then adjourned until three o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Immediately after the Convention being called to order, Mr. Cook, of Ohio, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following:

In order to bring before this Convention the distinct propositions to be considered, your Committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the interests of the whole Mississippi Valley require the immediate improvement, by the national government, of the Mississippi river from the Balize to the Falls of St. Anthony, including, especially the bars at the Balize, the Upper and Lower Rapids, and the removal of obstructions above these rapids; and also, the Ohio River from Cairo to Pittsburgh, and especially the works at the Falls of the Ohio. Said improvements to secure the navigation of said rivers free from all tolls or tribute.

Resolved, That the vast importance of such action as will secure the needed improvements at any early day of the following rivers is commended to the favorable and earnest consideration of Congres, viz: The Missouri river from the mouth of Fort Benton; the Illinois river; the Red river; the Tennessee river to Chattanooga; the Wisconsin and Fox rivers; the Arkansas river to Fort Smith, and the Cumberland river to Nashville.

Resolved, That when the financial condition of the country may justify, Congress be requested to cause proper investigations to be made as to the necessity of improving hereafter all the other rivers of the Mississippi Valley.

Resolved, That Congress should so legislate on the subject of bridging the Mississippi and other navigable rivers of the United States, as will, while recognizing the equal importance of railroad and river transportation, harmonize those interests by securing the greatest facilities for both.

Your Committee recommend in furtherance of the foregoing objects, the appointment of a committee, consisting of one member from each State represented in this Convention, with a sub-committee of five, to prepare a memorial to Congress demonstrating the national importance of said objects, and that each member of said general committee report to said sub-committee such statistics as will facilitate its work.

It is further recommended that the resolutions adopted and the memorial be forwarded to Congress in the name of this Convention, by the President, and that copies thereof be furnished to each Senator and Representative from the States of the Mississippi Valley.

Mr. Eads, of St. Louis, moved to include the Missouri River in the above resolutions, and sustained his motion by argument, showing the importance of that river as a channel of communication.

The motion of Mr. Eads led to a warm debate, during which the claims of various rivers were urged.

A motion was to include the Illinois river in case the motion of Mr. Eads was insisted upon, but finally Mr. Eads withdrew his motion.

A delegate from Iowa offered an amendment, that the improvement of the rapids should be urged as the primary object of the convention. This led to further debate, and the amendment was finally withdrawn, and the resolutions were then adopted separately without amendment.

A Memorial Committee, consisting of one from each State represented in the Convention, was then appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen: W. H. Harrison, Tennessee; D. B. Richards, Iowa; Charles H. Mekin, Indiana; Theodore Cook, Ohio; S. P. Weatherbee, Wisconsin; B. C. Levi, Kentucky; L. W. Budek, Louisiana; John Dougherty, Illinois; Henry M. Rice, Minnesota; J. M. Knapp, Pennsylvania, and Chas. L. Tucker, Missouri.

Complimentary resolutions were then passed thanking the officers of the Convention for the able performance of their duties; and also thanking the citizens of St. Louis for their attentions to the delegates. The Convention then adjourned sine die.

Before the Convention finally adjourned, the delegates accepted an invitation from the citizens of St. Louis to attend a banquet at the Lindell Hotel.

FROM MEXICO.

Rumors as to Maximilian—Bazaine to Leave the Capital on February 15th—Foreigners Leaving the Country.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13.—The French steamer Tobasco, from Vera Cruz, has arrived with telegrams for France from Maximilian, and a bag of important dispatches from the United States Consul at Vera Cruz.

Maximilian was at the National Palace, City of Mexico. It was rumored he would abdicate after the French depart. A contrary report says he would remain and fight it out.

Marshall Bazaine and the last detachment of French troops would leave the capitol February 15th. No French transports are at Vera Cruz.

The United States gunboat Thomama was there.

Foreigners were leaving Mexico as rapidly as they could.

The steamer Alabama, from New York, had arrived at Vera Cruz.

Among the passengers on the Tobasco is Col. Dussel, of Maximilian's household.

[From the Herald Correspondence.]

The free traders are not represented in the delegations interested in the Tariff Bill. Everybody goes in for the highest figures, and everybody gets all he wants. The lobby is so great that the passage way to the Ways and Means Committee room is obstructed.

A more favorable feeling exists toward the admission of Colorado.

[From the Tribune Correspondence.]

The restoration yesterday of the House rates on woolen and worsted goods, seemed to have settled a long vexed question, but it was in effect re-opened to-day by the efforts of Mr. Slater, of Massachusetts, and the old difference between the wool growers and wool manufacturers has been revived sufficiently to threaten a contest in the House. Many treacherous and hostile influences are at work to-day to defeat the Tariff bill.

No definite conclusion was reached yesterday on the nomination of General Dix to France. There is much opposition to his confirmation, and his nomination is doubtful. The Committee have decided to increase the rank of Minister Resident at Brussels to a full mission.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

THE RECONSTRUCTION QUESTION.

Passage by the House of the Stevens Military Rule Bill.

VOTE ON THE PASSAGE OF THE BILL.

WASHINGTON, February 13, 1867.

SENATE.

CIVIL GOVERNMENT IN ARKANSAS.

Petitions and memorials were presented. Among them was one from citizens of Arkansas, asking that a similar bill to that passed by the House for the Government of Louisiana, be passed for the organization of civil Government in Arkansas.

ADVERSE REPORT.

Mr. WILSON, from the Military Committee, reported adversely on the House resolution of thanks to Secretary Stanton and Quartermaster General Meigs for their services in the burial of Union soldiers at the South. It was indefinitely postponed.

BILL FOR THE REORGANIZATION OF LOUISIANA.

The Clerk of the House announced the passage by the House of the bill for the re-establishment of civil Government in Louisiana.

It was taken up by a vote of 23 to 19, but Mr. HENDRICKS objected to its consideration to-day. It goes over until to-morrow.

NEGATIVE ACTION ON HOUSE BILLS.

Mr. WILSON reported adversely on the House resolution in relation to the appointment of cadets to West Point; also on the bill of the House to provide for payment for horses used in the service of the United States; also on the resolution in relation to brevet rank, and the resolution to pay the Tennessee home guard; all of which were indefinitely postponed.

STEALING GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.

Mr. HENDRICKS called up the bill to punish the larceny of any article of government property by a fine of $5,000, and imprisonment for not less than one nor more than ten years, or both. Passed.

BILLS REPORTED.

Mr. MORRILL reported from the Committee on Military Affairs, without amendment, the bill to regulate the disposition of the unclaimed colored volunteer bounty fund, now in the custody of the Freedmen's Bureau.

Mr. WILSON reported from the same Committee, the House bill for the payment of additional bounties authorized by law to soldiers who have lost their discharge papers, with an amendment. This amendment makes the bill provide that in cases where the claimants discharge certificate, alleged to have been lost or destroyed, and where claimant's application for arrears of pay and bounty, prior to the act of July 28, 1866, have already been settled by the Auditor, upon proof of the loss of discharge papers, claims for said additional bounty may be settled.

Mr. WILSON also reported, without amendment, the House bill extending to general officers and officers, on the retired list, the benefit of the additional ration for every five years service.

Mr. WILSON also reported, with amendment, the House a bill crediting volunteer officers in the regular army with service in the volunteer service, and giving to such officers the same rank by brevet in the regular army as they held by commission in the volunteer service.

Mr. HOWARD reported, without amendment, the bill authorizing the payment of the reward offered for the capture of Jeff. Davis.

Mr. POLAND reported from the Judiciary Committee, the bill providing that a person held upon a mesne process or execution, issued from the United States Courts, shall be entitled to discharge in the same manner as if arrested on a similar process of State Courts in the same district.

Mr. ANTHONY reported from the Committee on Printing, the House bill making the Superintendent of Public Printing elective by the House of Representatives, with an amendment make such office and officer elective by the Senate.

APPOINTMENTS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported adversely on Mr. Anthony's bill, regulating appointments to the civil service, &c., and it was indefinitely postponed.

ADMISSION OF COLORADO.

Mr. WADE presented a telegraphic message from Denver, announcing a mass meeting which had adopted resolutions to the effect that the people of Colorado were very largely in favor of a State organization, and urging the passage of the bill for the admission of the State over the President's veto, and pledging the faith of the National Union party to the prompt acceptance of its conditions, and the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment.

LANDS FOR A RAILROAD.

Mr. POMEROY introduced a bill granting public lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph between Lawrence, Kansas, and the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, in the direction of Guaymas. Referred.

CODIFICATION OF CUSTOM LAWS.

The resolution continuing in force till January next the law for the codification of the Custom Laws, was passed.

LEAGUE ISLAND.

The League Island bill was considered, without action.

Recess till seven o'clock.

Evening Session.—Mr. DIXON presented the credentials of Senator Ferry, of Connecticut, which were filed.

The bill to amend the act incorporating the National Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home, passed. It merely changes the name of the corporators.

The bill to extend the time for the collection of the direct tax in West Virginia. Passed.

Several District of Columbia bills were passed.

The Clerk of the House announced the passage of the bill for the more efficient government of the insurrectionary States. It was read the first time.

Mr. SUMNER moved to proceed to its consideration, but Mr. McDOUGAL objected and it went over.

The bill for the payment of prize money to the officers and men of the signal corps, under Admiral Farragut, at Mobile Bay, passed; also the joint resolution for the purchase of David's and League Island; also the bill authorizing the purchase of certain lots of grounds, adjoining the United States Arsenal, at Pittsburgh. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

PROTECTION TO AMERICAN INDUSTRY.

Mr. MILLER asked leave to offer a resolution declaring it incompatible with the policy of the protective system of the United States, and detrimental to the industrial interests of the country to admit, under any pretext, whatever, free of duty, foreign iron, whether manufactured for railroad purposes or otherwise.

Mr. GLOSSBRENNER objected.

THE ADMISSION OF COLORADO.

The SPEAKER presented a telegraphic dispatch from Denver, Colorado Territory, announcing the proceedings of a public meeting in favor of the admission of Colorado.

THE MILITARY GOVERNMENTS AT THE SOUTH.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill for the establishment of military governments in the South.

Mr. VAN HORN advocated the bill, arguing the illegality of governments set up in the lately rebellious States.

Mr. STEVENS withdrew the motion to recommit, in order to submit some amendments which he explained. Among them was a substitute for the second section, by which Congress directly detailed five general officers to command the military districts proposed to be organized.

Mr. GARFIELD suggested that it was not for Congress to undertake to detail army officers.

Mr. STEVENS said he had vainly tried to satisfy the views of the gentlemen around him, but finding he could not, he withdrew the proposition to amend.

Mr. BOUTWELL closed the debate, arguing the necessity and propriety of passing the bill. In the course of his remarks he said, if it should happen that the Supreme Court should declare, as it possibly might, that the ten States lately in rebellion were States in the Union, and entitled to all the rights and privileges of States, and should base their declaration on any act of Congress, then these States were restored, as far as the Judiciary could restore them, to their position in the Government, and nothing remained to Congress and the people, except to accept that conclusion as binding, or enter into an indescribable and dangerous controversy with the chief judiciary of the land. If, however, this bill became a law and was put in operation, the Supreme Court would have no capacity to see in these ten States any civil government; and, therefore, for judicial purposes it could see no State, and Congress would keep in its hands the political reorganization of these States. In reply to the question by Mr. ELDRIDGE, he said it was competent for Congress to declare that the late rebellious States should be governed by Military Law; that the pretended State governments had not power to issue the writ of habeas corpus, nor to do any other act of government, except by power derived from Military authority.

Mr. SCHENCK having had ten minutes allowed him, declared his assent to the propriety of extending martial law over the States that, were in rebellion, and his opinion that at the same time, Congress ought to indicate to the people of those States what they were required to do in order that they might have civil governments and be represented in Congress. That, he understood, to be the object of Mr. Blaine's amendment, and he, therefore, supported it.

At two o'clock Mr. STEVENS moved the previous question.

Mr. BINGHAM appealed to the House not to second it, and thereby cut off all amendments.

The House refused, by a vote of 54 to 79, and the debate proceeded.

Mr. BINGHAM, while approving the general purpose of the bill, said Congress could not by direction or indirection, make a State Government for the people of any State. That was a matter which belonged to them. State Governments had to be established, not by act of Congress, but by the voluntary act of the people themselves. He desired to give the people that opportunity. That was the object of his amendment. He had thought the gentlemen who sustained this bill were for manhood suffrage, but it seemed they were only for manhood suffrage confined to a minority of the people in a State. Was it not enough to clothe the emancipated slaves with the highest right ever exercised by a citizen of the Republic, or had it come to this, that Congress was not only to clothe the emancipated slave with the elective franchise, but also to give him the whole political power of a State, and to make a majority of the white men his subjects for life, and compel them to pay the expense of the administration of the Government. There was not an emancipated slave in America that would ask any such legislation at the hands of Congress; they only asked equal rights and equal protection.

Mr. BLAINE moved to recommit the bill to the Judiciary Committee, instead of that on Reconstruction, with instructions to report it back immediately, with his (Mr. Blaine's) amendment added as a sixth section. He moved the previous question, which was seconded, by 64 ayes against 53 nays.

Mr. SPAULDING moved as a test question, to table the bill and amendments, intending, however, to vote himself against the motion. The vote resulted—yeas 39 and nays 125, a strictly party vote.

The main question was then ordered by 85 against 76 on Mr. Blaine's motion to refer, with instructions, to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. STEVENS spoke in favor of the bill; it was not intended for a reconstruction bill but simply as a Police bill, to protect the loyal men of the south from anarchy, murder and rapine, until Congress took a little more time to establish the Government.

The question was then taken on Mr. BLAINE'S motion to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report it back, with the following as an additional section:

"SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That when the Constitutional Amendment proposed as article 14th, by the 39th Congress, shall have become part of the Constitution of the United States, and when any of the late so-called Confederate States shall have ratified the same and conformed its Constitution and laws thereto in all respects, and when it shall have provided, by its Constitution, that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed equally and impartially by all male citizens of the United States, twenty years and upwards, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the late rebellion, and when said Constitution shall have been submitted to the voters, thus defined, for ratification or rejection, and when the Constitution, if ratified by the popular vote, shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, said State shall, if its Constitution be approved by Congress, be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom on taking the oath prescribed by law, and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this bill shall be inoperative in said States."

There was great excitement as the vote was taken, as it showed that the Democrats were coming very generally to the support of Mr. Blaine's motion, and that it would be a very close vote. After all the members had answered to their names, it appeared there was a majority of two or three against Blaine's amendment. Then the Democrats to preserve the uniformity of their record, commenced to change their votes from yea to nay, to the great amusement of the House. Finally the vote was announced, as 69 ayes to 95 nays. So the motion to refer was defeated.

The bill as passed describes the States affected by it as "the late so-called Confederate States," instead of "so-called States" as originally printed. It also inserts the word "local" before the words "civil tribunals" in the third section, and after the words "military custody" introduces the words "except in cases in which the prisoner held to answer only for a crime or crimes, exclusively within the jurisdiction of the Courts of the United States, within said military district therein."

Recess until 7:30.

Evening Session.—Mr. WHALEY introduced a bill to establish mail routes in West Virginia and Virginia. Referred.

THE INTERNAL TAX BILL.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. BOUTWELL presiding, on the internal tax bill.

Mr. MORRILL explained the bill, submitting his views at length on internal taxation.

Mr. DARLING advocated an increase of distillers' licenses to one thousand dollars, and argued that inspectors should be in the pay of the Government, instead of distillers stating that the tax had not been collected on one-eighth of the the spirits distilled, which was owing, largely, to the pernicious influence of the inspectors being in the pay of the distillers.

Mr. McKEE endorsed Mr. Darling's views.

The general debate on the bill here closed, which was read by sections.

The sections were passed over and the House adjourned.

FROM NEW YORK.

Henry Ward Beecher's Long Promised Speech on Suffrage.

His Advocacy of the Right of Women to Vote.

ABSURD REPORTS AS TO FENIAN MOVEMEMTS.

NEW YORK, February 13, 1867.

HENRY WARD BEECHER ON THE SITUATION.

Henry Ward Beecher delivered to-night at the Brooklyn Academy of Music, an address on Universal Suffrage. He took the ground that all classes who expected to reap benefit from legislative action, should have a voice in making the law. He claimed manhood has the right of suffrage—not a permission, and it was not just to exclude one section of the country from voting. Education was the watchword for safety over the ballot-box. It was not dangerous to allow ignorant men to vote. Suffrage itself was a powerful educator, the rudest, uneducated man in New York would know in one year, by education, the difference between a vote and a club; the second year he would observe the influence of party; the third he would vote more intelligently; the fourth he would know the requisition for a candidate; and the fifth he would vote as well as any one.

The Speaker advocated woman's suffrage, because through her influence a higher standard of men in office would be secured. Woman's sphere was something more than to remain at home and darn stockings and sew on shirt buttons. He also sustained his views on Scriptural authority, saying the New Testament contained nothing intimating the equality of the sexes. He did not want that a woman should undertake to be a man, but that she should bring into the nation's affairs the influence of her nature; that which she carried to church and to camp. Some objections had been made that a woman would vote, as did her husband, and neutralize the effect, or that she would vote the opposite, and so make discord in the family; but, he said, it would be the same in politics as in religion, if there was a difference, they would go on in harmony. If woman had a recognized right to influence her husband and sons, as to the manner in which they should vote, she also had a right to vote herself. Human society needed the exertive of the power of woman, and he would put it upon their conscience, to use every possible effort to ameliorate the condition of the poor, the down-trodden and the ignorant. He did not believe women should fight because they voted. All men who vote did not fight; but if woman could fight better than men then let them go it; on an average her head was stronger than a man's. A writer states that the family is the unit; it was so in olden times, but now the individual is the unit of the family. He did not wonder that women had said she did not want to vote, because she had been educated not to take a part in national affairs, but the day was not far distant when a reformation would take place.

Mr. Beecher said he waited for the day for woman to vote, because then he can vote for once in a decent place. The moment she gave her influence to the ballot a wide and a great change would be felt, not only in politics but in morals throughout the land.

He concluded by urging his fair hearers to take upon themselves the task of bringing about the desired result. They would contribute not only to their own happiness, but to the welfare of the country. By so doing. His only faith for the future prosperity of human society, was their devotion to the cause of woman suffrage.

A FENIAN STATEMENT.

An Albany letter says that there are now in New York, under the control of the Fenian leaders, 30,000 Snyder breech-loading rifles, and all the equipments therefor; 10,000,000 pounds of ammunition, and 5,000 complete suits of uniform. The amount raised and placed in the hands of O'Mahoney, Stephens & Co., was $812,000. The amount of money upon which Roberts started his raid upon Canada, was $126,000.

AUCTION SALE OF COAL.

The Pennsylvania Coal Company sold at auction to day, over two hundred thousand tons of Pittston coal in twenty-five minutes. The prices realized were: lump, $5; steamer, $5,50; grate, $5,50; egg, $5,25; stove, $5,40; chestnut, $5,25. Most of the coal was disposed of in parcels of 500 to 15,000 tons. The Pacific Mail Company bought an immense quantity. The prices averaged 28 cents per ton higher than at the January sales of Scranton coal; but are 87½ cents lower than the previous sales in August last.

MUNITIONS OF WAR.

A lot of heavy siege guns, muskets, equipments, and other material of warlike nature, arrived at Jersey City, via the Erie Railroad; on Monday afternoon, and yesterday afternoon were being shipped for some foreign port; supposed to be one of the South American Republics.

POSTAL REFORMS.

The Postoffice Department will soon make changes in the system by which letters are registered and forwarded, to provide for the more certain conveyance, and more strict accountability of postmasters, clerks, and the department, for packages going through their hands. Registered letters are to go in separate packages, and receipts therefor given by every agent or clerk through whose hands they pass.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, February 13, 1867.

SENATE.

The acts to enable State Banks to settle and close their affairs, and to authorize the School Directors of West Greenville, to borrow money, were reported by Committee.

Mr. Landon, from the Railroad Committee, reported Mr. Bigham's Free Railroad bill, with amendments. Five hundred copies of the bill were ordered to be printed.

There was an effort made to bring up the Connellsville Railroad bill.

Mr. Graham opposed it, until the Committee, which he supposed would be appointed by the meeting in Pittsburgh, arrived in Harrisburg.

Mr. Bigham read in place an act to macadamize the Temperanceville and Noblestown Plank Road, and charge the same to the parties benefited.

Mr. Brown, of Mercer, read in place an act relating to auction and gift enterprises in Mercer county.

HOUSE.

The question of Sunday street railway travel in Philadelphia was debated.

Mr. Wilson offered an amendment that colored people should ride in the cars.

This elicited considerable discussion, which consumed the entire session. The bill finally passed by 58 to 38.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Harry Hotto had a goodly benefit at the Opera House last evening, a large audience being present and a good bill being presented. One of the principal attractions of the house this week are the magnificent evolutions, on parlor skates, of John Engler, Jr. This evening Uncle Tom's Cabin will be presented, with little Jenny Blanche, the favorite child actress at the Opera House, as Eva. Little Jenny is the best Eva on the boards. Her equal in the part has never existed. On Friday evening Engler takes a benefit.

THEATRE COMIQUE.—The fairy oriental spectacle of "Cherry and Fair Star" is still drawing immense houses at the Theatre Comique. The parts were all well sustained, those having them in charge being better "up" in them than at first. The dressing, the dancing, and the scenery are all magnificent.

THE "ELEMENTS."—At Masonic Hall, Professor Macallister is drawing immense houses, having been obliged, on both evenings, to close the ticket office and lock the doors at an early hour to keep the dense crowds away. This evening the closing experiment will be the Professor's master piece, being entitled the "Elements." The principal present will be a very fine solid black walnut dressing bureau with a glass. Other presents of beauty and value will be distributed. Go.

The Indian Herb Doctor, No. 194 Liberty Street.

DEAR SIR:—I feel I am only doing a duty in publicly stating my gratitude for the benefit I have received from the use of your Herb Medicines, which has given me ease and comfort after long years of suffering. My disease was as follows: Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, pain in the back, Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder, Swelling of the Abdomen, General Debility &c., &c. But now, thanks to God and your medicine, I enjoy refreshing sleep in my bed, and am now quite a new being.

PUBLIC MEETING.

The Solid Men of the City in Council—Expression on the Connellsville Railroad Question — Resolutions Adopted and a Committee Appointed to Visit Harrisburg.

Last night, pursuant to the call issued by His Honor, Mayor McCarthy, a large number of the business men of the city assembled at the Board of Trade Rooms to take action in reference to the proposed legislation to restore to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad its franchises. Never do we remember having attended a meeting where the solid and influential manufacturers and business men of Western Pennsylvania were so fully represented, and where all evinced so deep an interest in the proceedings.

At a few minutes past eight o'clock, the room then being filled to its utmost capacity, the meeting organized by the election of John Shipton, Esq., as Chairman, and the selection of the following gentlemen as Vice Presidents: James I. Bennett, S. J. Bigley, John P. Pears, Josiah King, Nicholas Voeghtly and John McCreary. Secretaries—William Anderson, Guyan M. Irwin, George T. Whitney and T. P. Houston.

On taking the chair, Mr. Shipton made a few appropriate remarks, reading and explaining the call and object of the meeting. He felt that the restoration of the rights of the Connellville Railroad was a subject in which all in attendance, and in fact, the entire communities of Western Pennsylvania, were deeply interested. All honorable means should be used to secure the passage of the bill now before the Legislature, which will restore the lost franchises to that Company, and "block out" the schemes of the great monopoly—the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

On motion of Mr. B. F. Jones the following gentlemen were appointed as a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the views of the meeting: B. F. Jones, W. S. Bissell, John D. Scully, John McCreery, Charles Armstrong, and James M. Bailey.

The Committee retired, and during their absence able and spirited adresses were delivered by Hon. Biddle Roberts, Geo. Shiras Jr. Esq., Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, Isiah Dickey Esq., Josiah King Esq., and others. All these gentlemen advocated in strong terms the bill before the Legislature and felt that if the Senators and Representatives could be rightly informed of its great importance to the entire Western section of the State, the bill would meet with but little opposition.

The Committee on resolutions returned with the following, which were read and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by the incorporation of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville R. R. Company, and by a long course of friendly legislation in regard to the said company, invited and encouraged the city of Pittsburgh, the county of Allegheny, various boroughs and counties of Southwestern Pennsylvania, the city of Baltimore, together with the citizens thereof, to expend large sums of money in the partial construction of the road of that company, with a view to the creation of an additional outlet to the commerce and products of the West; and whereas, the Legislature of Pennsylvania, at the session of 1864, did, under pretense of an alleged abuse and misuse of their corporate privileges by the said Pittsburgh and Connellsville R. R. Company, undertake to revoke and recall certain powers previously conferred upon the said company, and to thereby convert the proposed national thoroughfare into an insignificant local road; and whereas, the Pittsburgh and Connellsville R. R. Company have recently, after a thorough investigation before an impartial jury and a court of distinguished ability, demonstrated the charges of abuse and misuses of their corporative powers to have been false and groundless; and whereas, a bill to rescind the said unjust legislation of 1864 is now pending before the legislature. Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That the producers and manufacturers of the East and West have a vested right in a free and untrammeled communication with each other, and that any monopoly interfering with such right is unjust, oppressive, and contrary to the spirit of American institutions.

2. That we desire to hereby express our conviction of the national importance of the designed route of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, our appreciation of the zeal and earnestness of the President and Board of Directors of that company, and our gratification at their recent successful vindication of the management of their company against charges of misconduct urged against them as a pretext for unjust and unconstitutional legislation.

3. That we call upon our particular representatives, and upon right-minded legislators from all parts of our state, by rescinding the improper legislation of 1864, to keep pure and unsullied the faith of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pledged to these communities by a long course of legislation.

4. That while we claim that it is within the power and is the consequent duty of the Legislature, by the passage of a judicious general railroad law, to greatly promote the welfare of all parts of our State, we do not recognize such a general law as by any means a substitute for the particular relief herein-before demanded.

5. That the West have a vital interest in this question, and the interests involved are too great to be overshadowed, and that the question of untrameled intercourse between tidewater and the Ohio, and the great lakes, demand the prompt removal of every obstruction.

6. That the time has come when the business of the Western part of the State requires another outlet to tide water, and that we must have the same rights that are given the Eastern part of the State; and that if the present opportunity should pass without the relief required, being granted, that we recommend to the citizens of Western Pennsylvania, to make the subject of uncontroled railroad legislation the basis of the next election for representatives.

That a committee of twenty be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting, to carry a copy of these resolutions to Harrisburg, and to cause it to be laid before the Senate and House of Representatives.

In accordance with the last resolution the following gentlemen were appointed to visit Harrisburg and carry with them the resolutions and views of the meeting, to present to the Legislators.

John Shipton, Wm. Bissell, John W. Riddell, P. H. Lauffman, Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, J. M. Bailey, Jno. A. Caughey, Alex. M. Watson, A. Garrison, Jno. F. Dravo, Jno. Black,

R. B. Carnahan, Thos. M. Marshall, Jake Hill, A. Patterson, C. G. Hussey, C. D. Bingham, J. F. Richart, J. M. Kirkpatrick, Alex. Miller, Thos. Moore.

The meeting, having no other business to transact, here adjourned.

Alleged Horse Thief Arrested in Allegheny.

Yesterday morning Frank Carver, a detective officer from Titusville, arrived in Allegheny and made information before Mayor Morrison, charging one Wm. Woods with having in his possession two stolen horses. It appears that in August last two bay horses, worth $450, were stolen from the door yard in front of the residence of William Irwin, in Deerfield township, Warren county, Pa. They were traced to Youngstown, Ohio, and there it was ascertained that they had been purchased by Adam St. Clair, a livery stable keeper in that place, for the sum of $200, and it was stated also that he had been informed that they were stolen when he bought them. When the detective arrived at Youngstown, however, the horses had been sent away, Woods, an employee of St. Clair's, having come with them in this direction. Woods and the horses were traced to Allegheny, where information was made as stated. Officers Hess and Nixon started in pursuit of the accused, and arrested him on Ohio street. He was locked up for a hearing. The presumption is that his employer, finding it unsafe longer to keep the horses, had sent Woods here to sell them.

Accident at the Union Depot.

Yesterday afternoon, on the arrival of the Philadelphia express train at the Union Depot, a lad about fifteen years of age, named John R. Mackerell, employed in the depot as a messenger boy, in attempting to get on the train, missed his footing and fell under the baggage car, one wheel of which passed over one of his legs, crushing it badly. The lad was conveyed to Mercy Hospital, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. E. Donnelly. The bones of the leg near the ankle were crushed, and the ankle joint laid open. It is feared that amputation may be necessary.

Neighborly.—Mary Ann Smith came yesterday before Alderman Donaldson, and made information against Mrs. Mary Ann Weaver, for disorderly conduct. The two women live neighbors in Birmingham, and Mrs. Weaver is a little bit jealous of Mrs. Smith. On Tuesday, it appears, Mrs. Weaver passed her neighbor's house, while said neighbor had her head out of the window, and the former uncorked the vials of her wrath immediately, calling Mrs. Smith every vile name in the vocabulary. The information was made therefor, and Mrs. W. arrested. She was held for a further hearing on Friday.

District Court.—Before Judge Williams. Fisher vs. Gellespie & Mitchell. This case went to the jury yesterday, but no verdict had been rendered at adjournment.

Strange Occurrence—A House Blown to Pieces in Allegheny—A Series of Gas Explosions—Loss of Life.

A strange and startling accident, attended with fatal results, occurred yesterday afternoon at about one o'clock, in the First ward, Allegheny. Mr. Samuel Bradley, proprietor of Bradley's Woolen Mill, on the river bank in Allegheny, has been building a new frame house on Darragh street, in the First ward, and the building is but just completed, having received the finishing strokes on Monday of the present week.

The house was rented to Mr. Wm. Barker, Jr., a son-in-law of Mr. Bradley's, and Mr. B. had removed a portion of his furniture into the building on Saturday, and the servants and a part of the family have been engaged in getting the house "to rights."

Yesterday, at the time mentioned, there was nobody in the house with the exception of Miss Bradley, Mrs. Barker's sister, who was in the sitting room with Mr. Barker's little boy, Samuel, a child of three years and five months, and a servant girl who was up stairs. Miss Bradley had just placed the little boy in a rocking chair in front of the fire, and had turned to leave the room, when a frightful explosion occurred, which knocked her down and rendered her temporarily insensible. When she recovered her senses a moment afterwards she was lying in a corner of the room, among what seemed the fragments of the whole house. Her first thought was for the child, and she discovered him lying half enveloped in the torn carpet in a distant part of the room, where he had been thrown from the chair by the force of the explosion. The child was apparently dead, though no bruises or cuts appeared on his body. As soon as he could be extricated, he was handed out of the window and removed to a room in the Woolen factory where he immediately received every attention. Drs. Rankin and Thorne were almost immediately at the place, and were unremitting in their efforts to relieve the little sufferer. He was found to be uninjured externally and his condition resulted from the violent concussion of the explosion and the inhalation of a large amount of the gas liberated thereby. His condition was very critical for some time, but for a time he seemed to grow better. Towards evening he began to sink, and at half-past eight o'clock he expired. Miss Bradley escaped with only temporary indisposition.

The house was reduced to a perfect wreck by the mysterious explosion. The floor of the sitting room which Miss B. and the child were in, was torn literally to pieces, and cast in a pile of rubbish at one side of the apartment. How the lady and child could have been thrown among such a collection of debris without serious injury, is a mystery only to be accounted for by the fact that the carpet partially covered the splintered boards and joists. The walls of the room were shattered, as was also the ceiling, to a considerable extent, while little of the furniture escaped complete wreck. The parlor across the hall shared the same fate. A magnificent piano in this room was thrown upon its end, but was found not to have sustained material damage. All the other rooms on the first floor were wrecked in the general ruin. The front portion of the house was forced far out at the bottom, so that to a person on the street, the front looked as if it were leaned up against the frame. Pieces of the glass, sash and inside wood-work were thrown by the explosion across the street. The building is a complete wreck, there being, apparently, no part of the frame which can be used in the work of "reconstruction."

As to the cause of this singular accident, there is no doubt that the explosion was caused by the gas bursting the pipe underground of the cellar, beneath the sitting room, though as to the cause producing the explosion nothing is certainly known. It is stated that the gas main thereabouts has been leaking for some time, and that the proper parties were notified of the fact when it was first discovered. It would seem that the liberated gas collecting under the frozen surface of the ground, become irrepressible, and escaped in this violent manner. Singularly enough, after the first explosion a constant succession of reports occurred at intervals of from ten to twenty minutes. As many as twenty of these must have occurred during the afternoon, varying in violence and taking place at different points. No material damage was done by any of them.

Mrs. Barker is lying dangerously ill at the old residence of the family, on Robinson street, and all knowledge of the occurrence is being kept from her.

A large crowd of course collected immediately, and the greatest excitement prevailed. All sorts of stories were started, and for a time it was believed that a number of deaths had resulted from the accident.

New Firm in an Old House.

John P. Hunt has disposed of his well known Fifth street book and periodical store to Messrs. Thomas, Hogle & Chambers, who will continue the business at the old stand. All of the gentlemen composing the new firm are energetic and experienced young men who enter into the business with the determination of being excelled by no other house in the city. They deal wholesale and retail in all the popular literary works and publications of the day, and their stock will be found remarkably well selected and choice. A large and varied assortment of stationery, pens, pencils, ink, writing paper, blank books, envelopes, &c., &c., will be found here at the most reasonable of prices. Their stock of valentines and fancy articles is large and varied, and no where else in the city can more advantageous bargains be procured by those who buy to sell again. All of the latest magazines, periodicals, novels, eastern papers and stories will be kept constantly on hand. While wishing the new firm abundant success, we take occasion to commend them to the patronage of the community. Their store is No. 59 Fifth street, under Masonic Hall. As they contemplate removing to a store a few doors below their present one, they offer at a great bargain their entire fixtures, counters, shelving, &c., which will admirably suit any other business.

The Presbyterian Convention.—The Presbyterian Centennial Convention at Dr. Howard's Presbyterian Church on Penn street, held its prescribed sessions yesterday at the hours agreed upon. The sessions were largely attended, quite a number of ladies being present. The reports of the various Presbyteries were not read as proposed, but were referred to a committee. The exercises, throughout the day and evening, were of great interest.

Got Bail.—Henry House, committed to jail by Alderman Strain for trial for the larceny of a horse and buggy, belonging to Frank Bissanet, obtained bail yesterday and was released. When first arrested the defendant was released on his mother's security. On Tuesday it was ascertained that the mother was not competent bail, and Henry was re-arrested. Yesterday, as stated, he obtained satisfactory bail, and was released.

Ruffianly.—Ann Shively, living on First alley, in the Third ward, Allegheny, came before Alderman Strain yesterday, and made information charging Robert Brown and John Alleton with surety of the peace. She alleges that they came to her house at night, broke open the door and threatened her, placing her in great bodily fear. Warrants were issued.

Two Charges.—A man named Miller, the keeper of a saloon on Fourth street, below Market, was before Deputy Mayor Morrow, yesterday, on a charge of selling liquor to minors, preferred by John Palmer, and also on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Mr. Shellenbarger. The accused was held for a hearing on both charges.

Paine & Co's Argentine.—For instantly plating all articles of copper, brass or German silver, with pure silver, where worn off, and for cleansing and polishing silver or silver-plated ware. Warranted to contain no quicksilver or acid, or any injurious article. For sale by J. Sample, Allegheny, and all druggists. del6:tf

Brother and Sister.—Sarah Askens, a colored girl living on the hill, in the Seventh ward, made information at the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, charging her brother, John Askens, of Allegheny, with assault and battery. She states that John slapped her in the mouth. John was arrested and locked up for a hearing.

Badly Hurt.—Yesterday afternoon a lad named George Pettis, residing in the First ward, Allegheny, accidentally thrust a sharp stick into one of his eyes a distance of two inches. The stick broke off, and was extracted with great difficulty. The wound is exceedingly painful and of a serious character.

Discharged.—Plenty Willis Gordon, the colored man charged, on oath of Henry Fullener, another negro, with the larceny of $6,50, had a hearing yesterday before Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, and was honorably discharged.

No Advance.—The bricklayers' wages during the present year remain the same as the past year of 1866. This will be of interest to many as it was currently rumored that they were about to inaugurate higher rates.

False Pretences.—Justice Kerr, of McClure township, yesterday committed to jail for trial, James Connor, charged on oath of Bridget Keenan, with false pretences in obtaining boarding fraudulently.

Universalist Fair at City Hall is attracting large crowds. It cannot be otherwise, for good music, pleasant company, a chance to win, and the grand promenade will draw.

Contempt of Court.—Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday fined Henry Kinsing five dollars for acting in a disorderly manner in the magistrate's office.

Concert for the Pittsburgh Association for the Relief of the Poor.

Notice has already been given to the public that the "Choral Union" will give a concert, on the 19th of February, under the auspices of the "Pittsburgh Association for the Relief of the Poor." The tickets are already issued, and the managers are making every effort to sell them, hoping to realize a large sum, to enable them to carry on their work among the destitute and needy. In making preparations for the concert, the Committee appointed by the Board has received great encouragement by the kindness of the trustees of Masonic Hall, who have generously given it for the occasion free of charge, also from the Gazette, Chronicle, Commercial and others, by their kind courtesy in publishing notices, placards, &c., gratuitously. The tickets are for sale at the music and drug stores, while many benevolent ladies and gentlemen are canvassing the city to dispose of them. We are convinced if our citizens could but listen to the sad cases of want and suffering, which are daily coming under our notice, not one of these tickets would remain unsold.

A Practical Business Education.

The system of practical instruction adopted some two years ago by the Iron City College of this city, has now been thoroughly tested and proved a complete success. It has more than satisfied the most sanguine expectations of its projectors, for by reducing theory to actual practice the student becomes an experienced practical accountant before graduating from the College. The superiority of this system over that commonly pursued in other business colleges, cannot be fully appreciated by one who has not had an opportunity for examining its workings and witnessing its results. As an evidence of its merits we would state, that it has received the most unqualified approval of every practical business man who has examined it.

Died of a Fall.

We stated last week that Mr. Richard Forrest, an elderly man residing on Lacock street, Allegheny, had been seriously injured on Friday, by falling upon the ice, while shipping some marble at the wharf. Mr. Forrest had his left arm severely fractured, and his left hip joint dislocated, besides sustaining internal injuries. Being quite an old man the shock was so severe that despite the most skillful surgical and medical treatment, he died on Tuesday. Mr. Forrest was foreman at Wallace's marble works. He was for a long time a resident of Allegheny, and was well and favorably known.

Europe Armed.—To-night at half-past seven o'clock, George Alfred Townsend commences his lecture on "Europe Armed," at the Academy of Music, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association. The crowd will be dense, and those who desire good seats should go early, as no "reserved seats" are advertised. In a couple of weeks we are to enjoy the pleasure of listening to the magnificent readings of Murdoch, who, for three evenings will delight the friends of the Library Association.

Firemen, Fashionables, and Financiers, order your shirts made at Murdock & Putnam's, 72 Fifth street.

DIED.

FORREST.—On Tuesday, February 12th, 1867, at a quarter past five o'clock, P. M., RICHARD FORREST, aged 65 years.

The funeral will take place THIS (Thursday) AFTERNOON, 14th inst., at two o'clock, from his late residence, No. 246 Lacock street, Allegheny city. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

BRITISH FREE TRADE.

Not a few individuals who take part in political discussions in this country convey the impression that Free Trade is actually established in Great Britain. It would seem harsh to charge them with intentional misrepresentation, and yet it is inconceivable how any body possessed of ordinary intelligence can speak and write as they do without designing to deceive. The old custom house system remains in as full force and effect throughout the British Empire as at any former period. Whatever changes have occurred in the scale of imposts have not been made with a view to approximating Free Trade, but really to continue and increase Protection by adaptations to the existing conditions of affairs.

There was a period in Britain when land represented the great money interest, and, as a matter of course, the controlling political force. The old families, anchored on their hereditary estates, held the fate of the Empire in their hands. But after awhile the palm passed away from land, and manufactures, with commerce bottomed thereon, became the great financial and political power. At this point British manufactures had reached a development where the domestic producers had entire control of the home market. In addition to the virtual multiplication of population by the use of machinery, so large a portion of the people were either directly or indirectly engaged in manufacturing that the repeal of the Corn Laws instead of being a step towards Free Trade was absolutely a measure of Protection. The idea was to lessen the cost of production by reducing the expenses of subsistence to the operatives; the larger interest, that is manufacturing, sacrificing the smaller, or grain raising, to meet its necessities.

Though only a few years have elapsed vast progress has been made in machinery in France and Belgium. In both those countries moreover, labor is cheaper than in Great Britain. Recently a new thing has happened. Belgian iron has been imported into England for use on railroads, notwithstanding a considerable duty had to be paid upon it. Does anybody imagine that this significant hint will induce Parliament to make a farther reduction of the impost? It is much mure reasonable to infer that the duties will be raised so as to exclude Belgian iron from the British market.

Nor is the only way in which the British have notification that their manufacturing supremacy is not so impregnable as they thought. Machinery is now made on the continent, of most excellent quality, and for a less price than it can be turned out at the English shops. It is becoming a regular business for British operators to have machinery made under their own inspection on the continent, and transported to England for market. In this way English machinists are suffering, and numbers of them are out of employment.

Nor is it simply in iron that the British find they are on a false basis. Says the London Builder:

"The foreigners are upon us. On Wednesday week more than a thousand deal-molded doors, with many thousand of feet of jam-linings and skirtings, all from Stockholm, were sold by auction at the Albert warehouse, Limehouse. We have seen the doors; they are well made, principally from machinery had from England, and to our usual sizes. There are several other cargoes to come; and there is little doubt they can be sold at a profit for very little over what the labor alone in producing similar work would cost English builders."

No man of good common sense can doubt to what this will lead. England is not quite ready to send her capital across the channel to the Continent, and her workmen to America. The capitalists and the workmen will unite in demanding larger duties, and compliance with their requisition will not be long delayed.

THE Democracy of the country are divided upon the question of holding, at an early date, a grand national convention. Some of the leaders oppose the project, fearing that more capital will be furnished the Radicals in the resolutions to be adopted, and the convention may interfere with the prospects of a successful presidential campaign. Their faith in their own doctrines must be remarkably weak if they fear making known to the country their platform of principles.

Anti-Monopoly in Expresses—Merchants' Union Express Company—"Taylor's Restaurant" Transformed.

[From the New York Evening Gazette.]

About a year ago there was organized at Auburn, in this State, an express company which now bears the name of the Merchants' Union Express Company. It was thought by many people that the old and long established express companies of the United States, which had become huge concerns, and grown immensely wealthy out of the profits of their earnings, charged too high a price for the carrying and delivery of goods, and in many instances were unwilling to make themselves responsible for matter left in their hands, or which became lost or injured while going from point to point. To remedy this evil, and establish a healthy competition, a new company was formed, with Elmore P. Rose as President, and William H. Seward, Jr., as Vice President, and the cry of anti-monopoly was raised. As a matter of course, however, much opposition manifested itself from those who had long been established in the business. An attempt was made to "crush out" the new company, and the policy of non-intercourse was adopted, but thus far it has proved unsuccessful.

On the other hand, the Merchants' Union has grown with an unprecedented vigor, until to-day it commands attention from its immense size, and its influence has been felt throughout the whole express business in a great reduction of prices. It is now one of the leading express companies of this city, and as next Monday it will formally occupy its new office at 365 Broadway, corner of Franklin street, in the room long known as Taylor's restaurant, it may not be uninteresting to sketch its rise, and take a view of its present dimensions.

This company only commenced to do actual business last October. The first day it had seven tons of freight left at its offices in this city, the next day fourteen, the next twenty, and since that time there has been a steady increase, until now all their offices are overflowing with bundles and boxes. A force has to be employed day and night to look after them, and more than one hundred tons per day passes their various depots in town. For the purpose of collecting and delivering freight in this city alone, forty-two single and nineteen double teams are kept running, employing about one hundred and fifty horses, the whole present force of the company. Besides these, trucks have been hired to assist in the work at an expense of one hundred and fifty dollars per diem. The city, below Fourteenth street, is divided into routes which are traveled over twice each day by those who collect freight, and the same number of times by those who deliver it; each horse and team is thus kept out from ten to twelve hours.

A large number of the stockholders of this company are merchants all over the country, who are directly interested in the express business, and therefore in the success of the enterprise. When it is recollected that it was necessary to establish offices and routes in the face of the combined opposition of all the other companies, it will seem surprising that since last October, not yet six months, over two thousand offices have been organized, and their lines extend over fifteen thousand miles of railroad! This extension will continue to be pushed forward with great rapidity, until the organization of all contemplated lines is completed. In addition to many lateral and branch roads in New England and the Western States there will be equipped, in time for the early spring business, another main trunk line between the seaboard and the Ohio river, via the Erie, the Atlantic and Great Western Railways, and one between New York, Baltimore and Washington city. This company, then, is no longer an experiment, but it is an established success.

About one million of dollars have already been invested by this express company in real estate, apart of the property thus bought being the International Hotel building, at the corner of Broadway and Franklin street. The original cost of this house was four hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and over one hundred thousand dollars have been spent in fitting up the inside of it for an express office. It is now claimed to be the most elegant express office in the United States, and for that matter there is but one business office of any kind in the Union that equals it! The room is the original size of Taylor's restaurant, but completely renovated and refitted throughout. The floor is laid with narrow strips of oak and black walnut, and as we enter the room from Broadway, we notice on the right hand side the private rooms of the directors, president, general managers, paymaster, cashier, etc., with a dressing room, all of which are fitted up with black walnut furniture and desks, and handsomely carpeted with Brussels.

The large business or receiving room contains a long counter of black walnut, which extends along the Franklin street side of the room, from front to rear. This counter, with its desks, is an elaborate piece of workmanship, and was very costly. It contains the device of the company, clasped hands, and their monogram, M. U. E. C., emblazoned upon it in various places in ground glass. Some fifteen or twenty clerks will be employed behind this counter to do the business of the office. Two immense safes—one of Marvin's and one of Herring's—have been put into the room. There are desks for receipting and receiving, for the money department, the way bills, and the correspondence.

In the rear of this elegant front office we find a large room already full of boxes and bundles waiting for shipment. The express wagons drive into the alley-way back of the building, which runs from Franklin street, and are loaded at the door. There is a large steam elevator in connection with this room which runs to the basement, where we find several other large rooms already rapidly filling up with packages. Still lower down is another large room, and in connection with it, the engine and boiler rooms. Everything goes by steam now-a-days, even stables for horses and express offices. There are already two seventy horse-power steam boilers under the side walk, and a thirty-five horse-power upright oscillating metropolitan engine, built by Otis & Brothers, of Yonkers, is in operation. This works the elevator, and another engine for the same purpose will soon be added.

One large room in the basement is marked "O H." which stands for on hand, but the express men call it "old horse." In this room there is a vast collection of unclaimed and undelivered baggage, such as sewing machines, whips, brooms, vices, guns, looking glasses, stoves, beds and bedding, boxes, hogs, barrels, and kegs of lager beer. Every six months or a year this will be offered for sale. There is one room filled with stationery for the use of the company.

When the International hotel building came into the hands of the company it was a condemned building, and it had to be thoroughly reconstructed inside. Many of the timbers removed were found to be entirely rotten; a new brick wall, eighteen inches thick, had to be run up inside, a large number of cast iron posts were put in, and wrought iron girders. It is now in an excellent condition—really a new house. The upper lofts will be let for business purposes. This office is for the reception of eastern freight only. The western freight office is at the corner of Hudson and Leonard streets, where several buildings are already occupied, and where the cars run under the building and are loaded from the platform. There is an office at 180 Broadway and one on Thirty-second street. At all of these places men are at work both night and day to turn out the immense amount of business which flows in upon them.

In the occupation of churches for stables this company seems to have followed the prevailing custom, no less than two having been put under contribution, the Central Presbyterian Church in Broome streets, built in 18[illegible]4, and an old church in Franklin street. The Broome street church is a nice sand-stone house; the inside of it was torn out, and the audience room fitted up into stalls for one hundred houses. The Sunday school room is occupied as a store room for the wagons of the company. These are made by Abbott Downing of Concord, N. H., and are painted a beautiful French gray, which is the standard color of the company. A few wagons are a golden yellow.

The stables on Broome street are among the nicest in the city, with large, wide, open stalls, while much attention has been paid to ventilation and drainage. At the Franklin street stables we saw some fine work horses, the average cost price of which was from four to five hundred dollars.

To-morrow night the officers and employees of the company will rejoice in a pleasant re-union and house-warming, at their new office on Broadway, which will be formally occupied on Monday.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION.—HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.—Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual constipation is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so-called remedies invariably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels—rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination in the happiest proportion, of these ingredients, is found in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This famous Stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No mere purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Consumption abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why Constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will, in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Vacation of Spruce Alley—Meeting of the Citizens of the Ninth Ward—The Question Discussed—Resolutions, Speeches &c.

Pursuant to the published call, a meeting of the citizens of the Ninth ward, was held last Tuesday evening in the Hall in the basement of the School House of the ward, for the purpose of giving expression in regard to the vacation of a portion of Spruce alley. At least two hundred citizens, embracing members of Council from the Fifth and Ninth wards, were in attendance, and the proceedings were of an extremely harmonious character.

The meeting was called to order by James B. Hill, Esq., upon whose motion John McCargo, Esq., City Controller, was called upon to preside. Mr. J. E. McKelvey was chosen Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting in a few well chosen remarks, after which Mr. James B. Hill offered the following preamble and resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

WHEREAS, The citizens of the Ninth ward have heard with surprise and indignation of the attempt, on the part of a non-resident of the ward, and a non-resident of the city, to vacate and close up, for his own individual benefit, a portion of Spruce alley, between Carroll and Wilkins street; and

WHEREAS, They have assembled in pursuance of notice, to take action in relation thereto; therefore,

Resolved, That this meeting characterizes this attempt as a most unwarranted and high-handed one, and in direct conflict with the wishes and interests, as this meeting believes, of every citizen of the Ward.

Resolved, That this meeting take early and vigorous steps to prevent this outrage by the appointment of proper committees to prepare remonstrances for Councils, the Court or the Legislature, or wherever the attempt may be made to secure the passage of this iniquitous measure.

Resolved, That to the delegation in the Legislature from this county we enter our protest against any such action by the Legislature as the vacation of this alley, or any portion of it, and earnestly request their individual and united exertions to carry out the wishes of this meeting.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chair, whose duty it shall be to employ counsel, or take any other steps necessary to carry out the wishes of this meeting.

Resolved, That when this meeting adjourns, it adjourns to meet at the call of the President.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously, without debate, and the following named gentlemen were appointed as the committee provided for in the fourth resolution; Messrs. James B. Hill, William Johnson, William R. Ford, Joseph Spencer, and David McClelland.

On motion of James B. Hill, Esq., the members of Councils from the ward were instructed to vote against the vacation of any street or alley in the city.

Mr. Phillip Drum moved that the thanks of the meeting be tendered those Councilmen of the ward who voted against the proposed vacation of Spruce alley. Carried.

A resolution, requesting those present to give an expression of their opinion in regard to the vacation of Spruce alley was adopted, when Mr. J. McCandless stated that although a large number of streets and alleys in the ward had been vacated, not one cent had been derived by the city from such vacation. In the present case, Mr. Smith was willing to pay liberally for the privilege he desired, and was also satisfied to vacate a portion of his property in order to keep the alley open for travel.

Mr. Drum states the question of money was not being considered. The alley was a general convenience to the citizens, and should remain in its present condition. A public thoroughfare was required at that point, and its vacation would prove detrimental to the public.

Mr. Ezekiel Douglas stated that he owned property on the alley in question, and if Mr. Smith had a right to occupy any portion of it, other property holders should have the same privilege. If the matter was carried out the alley would be built up to the city line.

Alderman Normine said that he had been informed that Mr. Smith had offered $10,000 for the privilege of occupying the alley opposite his works, and in case he succeeded in purchasing the property he would save at least $6,000 by being relieved from grading and paving it.

Mr. William R. Ford, member of the Common Council, remarked that he had never heard of any specified amount being named. Mr. Smith had stated to the committee that he was willing to give ground at the lower end of his lots for the purpose of continuing the alley, or would pay any amount for it that Councils might require. A proviso had been inserted in the resolution adopted by Councils that the money accruing from the proposed vacation should be expended in improving the balance of the alley. Mr. Ford spoke strongly against the proposed vacation.

Mr. William Shaffer was opposed to vacating any more streets or alleys in the ward, particularly those running parallel with the river. Spruce alley would at no distant day be opened to the Arsenal gate, at Lawrenceville, and would be a much needed thoroughfare. He was a property holder on the alley, and was willing to pay his share for grading and paving it.

Mr. Hill moved that a copy of the resolutions adopted by the meeting be forwarded to our Representatives at Harrisburg, which was adopted.

Remonstrances against the vacation of the alley were then prepared, and numerously signed, after which the meeting adjourned.

Singular Attempt of a Mother to Drown Herself and two Children.

On Saturday last, a singular affair occurred at Millville, Cambria county, of which we have the following account in the Johnstown Democrat: "Mr. James Bath, Mary his wife, and several small children, are living in Millville borough. Mr. Bath is a miner and works in the coal mines of the Cambria Iron Company. On last Saturday morning his wife got up and prepared breakfast of which they partook. It being early Mr. B. sat down by the stove. Mrs. B. goes into an adjoining room, the sleeping apartment, and takes her two younger children out of bed, one aged two years and the other about six months, she wrapped her dress around them and left the house carrying them along. Her husband soon missed her and starts out to find her; he hears a gurgling noise in the well, runs for his miner's lamp, gives the alarm to the neighbors, and descends into the well; here he finds his wife and children in a drowning condition. He gets a foothold in the rough stone wall of the well, raises his wife's head above the water and holds it between his knees, takes a child in each hand and again calls for help. Mr. Parfit, a neighbor, arrives and takes the children out of the well. A rope is fastened around the waist of Mrs. Bath, and she is raised, the three are taken into the house in an insensible condition. They were then divested of their wet clothing, wrapped in dry blankets, rolled and manipulated until signs of animation returned. Mrs. Bath, and the older child are now fully restored, while the younger child is in a critical condition, and in all probability will not survive. The well is twenty-six and one-half feet deep, and there is ten feet of water in it. The walls are rough and crooked and the diameter small, and had the children been thrown down, or the mother jumped down they must have in their descent received severe contusions, but none appear on their persons. Mrs. B. says she carried the children down in her apron, which appears from the circumstances to be the case.

"There has been no reason assigned why this woman should thus seek to destroy her own and her children's lives. Mr. Bath is a sober, hard working man, and his neighbors say is kind to his family. It appears, however, that at the store his wife had drawn more than the amount of wages coming to him, and further purchases, for the time being, had been stopped. The trouble of poverty may have been an incentive cause, but more likely she is insane."

Instruction Of the Blind.

From the thirty-fourth annual report of the Managers of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instruction of the Blind, in Philadelphia, just issued, we learn the following facts in reference to the operations of the Institution during 1866: The whole number of blind persons in the Institution December 1st, 1866, including "The Home" and workshop, was 181; of which number 29 were received during the year, 32 were discharged, and 2 died; of the whole number, 155 are from Pennsylvania, 18 from New Jersey, 1 from Delaware, and 7 from other places; 34 of the whole number, including 20 in "The Home," support themselves in part, as assistant teachers, or in the manufactory, 5 are paying pupils in full, 18 in part, and 5 are day pupils.

There were manufactured during the year by the male pupils and workmen, 14,417 scrubbing brushes, 3126 hair do., 2184 shoe do., 1122 dust do., 761 wall do., 744 cloth do., 256 window do., 360 horse do., 513 clamps do., 652 miscellaneous do., valued at $6430,01. Also, 26,075 brooms, 75 whisks, 2419 mats, 1430 yards of carpet, valued at $15,110 56. The female inmates and Home inmates made 7174 articles of beadwork, knitting, &c., valued at $2127 23.

The following statistics of all blind persons admitted to the institution will be found interesting: Born blind, 61; in the first year, 121; between one and five years, 103; between five and ten years, 95; between ten and fifteen years, 50; between fifteen and twenty years, 44; over twenty years' 100; ages not given; 18; making a total of 594, of which number 380 were males and 212 females. The Managers in their report say "that each successive year makes the necessity more urgent for finding employment for the pupils when their term of instruction has expired, and they are called upon to labor for their own support. Not having the same facilities for obtaining remunerating employment as the seeing, they are liable to become paupers, a burthen to the community, and, too often, to be consigned to a life of inglorious inactivity or degradation. The number of blind is increasing annually with the rapid increase of the population; and the difficulty with them of procuring a livelihood must become greater and greater, unless adequate means are devised to obviate it."

The Cold Snap.—The cold weather of last Saturday and Sunday extended as far south as New Orleans. A snow storm is reported at Memphis, and a "cold wind" at New Orleans. At St. Louis the thermometer was below zero Sunday morning. At St. Paul, Minn., the thermometer marked 24 below on Saturday. In Chicago it was 18 below Sunday morning at seven o'clock.

Sued for Libel.—The editor of the Crawford Journal, Mr. Leonard Bliss, has been sued for libel, on complaint of Clara G. Hosmer.

Adulteration and Fraud.

We have long been aware that many commodities sold daily in our stores were adulterated and impure; With drugs and spices and many articles of groceries, the practice is prevalent. It is almost impossible to get pure brandy or wine. Oils of every kind are diluted with inferior grades or foreign substances. Perhaps the worst form in which these frauds are exhibited is in the mixing and regrinding of bad flour. An old and highly respectable baker of this city informed us that certain venders are in the habit of having the bran from which extra flour has been taken reground with superior wheat or with sour or musty flour and pack it in new barrels on which they print the similitude of some popular brand and dispose of it to their customers, thus realizing a dollar or two extra profit at the cost of the deceived consumer. Nothing can be more reprehensible than impositions of this sort in an article of daily use and utility among all classes: penal laws against such frauds are on the statue book and we suppose it is the duty of the Inspector of flour to find out. Expose and punish all such rascality. We commend the subject to the attention of the new incumbent of that office who by the faithful discharge of his duty in this respect will prove himself a proper benefactor.

Had to Pay.

Yesterday morning a man named James Dobbs, was arrested by officer Sarber, and taken before Alderman Donaldson, on a charge of false pretences, preferred by Mr. Samuel Fleming. It appears that Dobbs, by means of fraudulent representations, procured a barrel of sweet potatoes on account of the deponent. About eighteen months ago, Mr. Fleming was keeping a grocery store in the Diamond, and the accused was huckstering in the Market. Some sweet potatoes were being hauled to Fleming's grocery in barrels, and Dobbs stopped the teamster, telling him that he had made arrangements with Mr. Fleming, to have one left with him. The barrel was left, and he never paid for it. Subsequently he left the city for Beaver county, and returned for the first time yesterday. At the hearing he paid the price of the potatoes, $5.50, and the costs of the suit, after which he was allowed to depart.

All the Way from Wheeling.

Yesterday afternoon, officers Logan and White, of the special police, came across a woman on Tunnel street, who, with a bundle in one hand and a stick wildly flourishing in the other, was heading a large crowd of children and loafers up the street. She was taken in custody and conveyed to the lock-up, where she stated that her name was Bridget Russel, though some of her more intimate friends called her Biddy. For the present, she said, on account of her friends, she would give her name as Catherine. She had just arrived in the city from Wheeling. She was exceedingly drunk, though she indignantly repelled the imputation, alleging that she never was drunk—"no more drunk than at that blessed minute." She was locked up.

More About the Bull Dog.—We stated yesterday that Alderman Lynch had placed in the hands of officer Connor a search warrant, for searching the premises of Lewis Myers, of Duquesne borough, and ascertaining whether a bull dog belonging to Samuel Wichline were there. Yesterday the officer, in company with the plaintiff, searched the premises, and found the dog. They tied a white handkerchief around the animal's neck and were leading it away, when Myers, as is stated, attacked them with a large open knife, with which he severely cut Wichtine's hand, severed the handkerchief, and regained the dog. Wichline next made information against him before the same Alderman for felonious assault and battery, and officer Connor arrested the defendant, who gave bail for a hearing.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. FREE OF CHARGE. Please enclose a post-paid envelope addressed to yourself.

STATE LOAN.

PROPOSALS FOR A LOAN OF

$23,000,000.

AN ACT

To Create a Loan

FOR THE REDEMPTION

The Over-Due Bonds of the Commonwealth.

WHEREAS, The bonds of the Commonwealth, and certain certificates of indebtedness, amounting to twenty-three millions of dollars, have been over due and unpaid for some time past;

And Whereas, It is desirable that the same should be paid, and withdrawn from the market; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer be, and are hereby, authorized and empowered to borrow, on the faith of the Commonwealth, in such amounts and with such notice, (not less than forty days) as they may deem most expedient for the interests of the State, twenty-three millions of dollars, and issue certificates of loan or bonds of the Commonwealth for the same, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first of February and first of August, in the City of Philadelphia, which certificates of loan or bonds shall not be subject to any taxation whatever, for State, municipal or local purposes, and shall be payable as follows, namely: Five millions of dollars payable at any time after five years and within ten years; eight millions of dollars, payable at any time after ten years and within fifteen years, and ten millions of dollars at any time after fifteen years and within twenty-five years; and shall be signed by the Governor and State Treasurer, and countersigned by the Auditor General and registered in the books of the Auditor General, and to be transferable on the books of the Commonwealth, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' National Bank of Philadelphia; the proceeds of the whole of which loan, including premiums, et cetera, received on the same, shall be applied to the payment of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 2. The bids for the said loan shall be opened in the presence of the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer, and awarded to the highest bidder: Provided, That no certificate hereby authorized to be issued, shall be negotiated for less than its par value.

SEC. 3. The bonds of the State and certificates of indebtedness, now over due, shall be receivable in payment of the said loan, under such regulations as the Governor, Auditor General and State Treasurer may prescribe; and every bidder for the loan, now authorized to be issued, shall state in his bid whether the same is payable in cash or in the bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the Commonwealth.

SEC. 4. That all trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, agents, treasurers, committees, or other persons, holding in a fiduciary capacity, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the State or moneys, are hereby authorized to bid for the loan hereby authorized to be issued, and to surrender the bonds or certificates of loan held by them at the time of making such bid, and to receive the bonds authorized to be issued by this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons standing in the fiduciary capacity stated in the fourth section of this act, who may desire to invest money in their hands for the benefit of the trust, may, without any order of court, invest the same in the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, at a rate of premium not exceeding twenty per centum.

SEC. 6. That from and after the passage of this act, all the bonds of this Commonwealth shall be paid off in the order of their maturity.

SEC. 7. That all loans of this Commonwealth, not yet due, shall be exempt from State, municipal or local taxation, after the interest due February first, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall have been paid.

SEC. 8. That all existing laws, or portions thereof, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
L. W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Approved the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

JOHN W. GEARY.

In accordance with the provision of the above act of Assembly, sealed proposals will be received at the office of the State Treasurer, in the city of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, until 12 o'clock, M., of the 1st day of April, A. D., 1867, to be endorsed as follows: "Proposals for Pennsylvania State Loan," Treasury Department, Harrisburg, Penn'a, U. S. A.

Bids will be received for $5,000,000, reimbursable in Five years and payable in Ten years; $8,000,000 reimbursable in Ten years and payable in Fifteen years; and $10,000,000 reimbursable in Fifteen years and payable in Twenty-Five years. The rate of interest to be either 5 or 6 per cent, per annum, which must be explicitly stated in the bid, and the bids most advantageous to the State will be accepted. No bid for less than par will be considered. The bonds will be issued in sums of $50, and such higher sums as desired by the loaners, to be free from State, local and municipal taxes.

The over due bonds of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be received at par in payment of this loan, but bidders must state whether they intend to pay in cash or in the over due loans aforesaid.

No distinction will be made between bidders paying in cash or over-due loans.

JOHN W. GEARY,
Governor of Pennsylvania.
JOHN F. HARTRANFT,
Auditor General.
W. H. KEMBLE,
State Treasurer.

N. B.—No newspaper publishing the above, unless authorized, will receive pay. fe8:129

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—A Farm of about 58 acres in Union Township, Allegheny county, Pa., situate about four miles from the city on the Washington Pike. The improvements are a large two story Brick Dwelling House with 12 rooms, a two-story Spring House, a Carriage House, a large Lumber Room, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, with stabling sufficient for 50 head of cattle. There is a fine Young Orchard, comprising about 12 acres, stocked with the best varieties of fruit trees. It is all underlaid with coal. The land is in a high state of cultivation, well watered, fences good, and would suit admirably for dairy or gardening purposes.
Also, 17½ acres adjoining the above, with a good Frame House, Carriage House, good Spring House and other out-buildings; with a good Orchard in fine bearing condition. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.
The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.
Also, Farm of 173 acres, situate in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., immediately on the line of the Penna. Railroad. The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard; 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Possession given immediately.
For further particulars, enquire of
G. H. TOWER,
no7 Real Estate Agent, 164 Fourth street.

FOR SALE—A Farm of 250 acres, all under good fence, cleared and in fine order, balance in good sized white oak and hickory timber, with most of underbrush cleared out; well watered and partly underlaid with a two foot vein of coal; good frame house, two barns, wagon sheds, corn cribs, pig pens, spring house, and about fourteen acres of choice fruit, different qualities. In this there is no waste land—all can be worked with ease. Situated in Beaver county, Pa., three miles from Rochester Station, and twenty-seven miles from Pittsburgh. Price $60 per acre.
Coal works, now in successful operation; daily production 10,000 bushels, situate on Monongahela river, in pool No. 3.
Small Farm, 40 acres, well improved, 1½ miles from Livermore Station, on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, in Indiana county, and only 38 miles from the city, all for $2,000.
Three acres in Duquesne Borough; no improvements; suitable for all kinds of small fruit growing.
One hundred acres good farm land, four acres cleared, good springs, and timber for fencing and building; four miles from Altoona, in Blair county, Pa.; good road to same; all for $1,600.
Ninety-two acres in Fayette township, 50 of which is coal; all fenced; house, barn, orchard, &c.
Several Brick and Frame Houses in Allegheny, one in Freeport.
Six Lots, 23 by 12 feet, in Wilkinsburg. Price $450—$100 cash, balance on time to suit purchaser. This is a rare chance for persons of small means, as the lots are only about two hundred yards from the station, they are cheap. Terms easy, and we want to sell them. JOHN CROFT, ja31 Real Estate Agent, 139 Fourth street.

FOR SALE,

A COUNTRY RESIDENCE,

AT SHADY SIDE,

On the PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD, within 20 minutes ride from the city. The house is entirely new, substantially built, convenient in its arrangements, and tastefully ornamented inside and out. It has hot and cold water, and gas fixtures throughout. It occupies a commanding site on a lot of five acres, part of which is the original forest, the remainder being well adapted for fruits and vegetables. There is a thrifty orchard of dwarf trees.
The surroundings are all attractive, consisting of private residences of like character.

LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST AND THIRD PAGES

Narrow Escape of a Railroad Train.—On Tuesday evening, at about seven o'clock, as the evening passenger train on the Connelsville Railroad was going out, a little affair occurred which came very near leaving only little pieces of the cars and mangled remains of the passengers. The train had barely passed Everson & Co.'s Rolling Mill, when a large mass of the over hanging rock fell upon the track, just missing the rear of the train. Fortunately there is never so much danger in a thing of that kind just after a train has passed as just before. The track was effectually blockaded yesterday but workmen are busily engaged in blasting the rock, while the managers of the road, we fear, do not content themselves with blasting it.

Common Pleas Court.

Before Judge Sterrett.

The case of Bingley vs. M'Donald, already reported, was on trial yesterday, and will likely occupy all of to-day.

Before Judge Sterrett.

Fredericks vs. Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad Company. Action for damages for personal injury. Still on trial.

Alleged False Pretences.—L. C. Hall, a business man on Grant street, made information before Alderman Strain yesterday, charging A. A. McGinnis, of Temperanceville, with false pretences. He alleges that the accused obtained goods of him to the amount of seventy-eight dollars, and gave him in return an order on E. McGinnis, which he represented to be good. The order was presented and payment refused, the defendant having no right to give the order. A warrant was issued. The defendant owns a saw mill in Manchester.

A Hostler Out of His Stable.—Mrs. Mary E. Kohler, living at No. 12, Lore's Houses, in Oakland, preferred a charge of assault and battery against Wm. Henkle, yesterday, before Alderman Strain. Henkle is a hostler at the stables of the Oakland Passenger Railway. It is alleged that he choked Mrs. Kohler and struck her with a broom. He was arrested and the case settled on the payment of the costs by the defendant.

A Milkman in Trouble.—John Mattis drives a milk wagon in Baldwin township, and William Unks lives in East Birmingham. On Monday they met in the Pittsburgh Diamond, and Unks, as Mattis alleges, attacked the latter, striking and kicking him, and threatening to kill him. Information for assault and battery was made before Justice Salisbury, the defendant arrested and held for a hearing.

Bones Broken.—Yesterday morning a laborer named McFall, while conveying a heavy piece of metal on his shoulder along the Monongahela wharf, slipped and fell, fracturing his collar bone and one of his arms between the elbow and shoulder. Dr. Stoneroad, his physician, fears that he is injured internally, and that his injuries are serious.

Heavy Case.—Anthony Ebberts says that some time ago Louis Sanders borrowed a dollar of him and refused to return it. Information for false pretences was made yesterday before Justice Salisbury, and a warrant was issued.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, February 13, 1867.

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 137@137⅛; 1881 bonds, 109; Five Twenties, old, 109⅝; Five Twenties, '65, 107⅛; do new, 105¼; Seven Thirties, 105¼. Michigan Southern Railroad, 75; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 81⅜; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 98¼; Erie, 59⅜; Western Union Telegraph Company, 44⅜; Chicago and Rock Island, 99¼; Chicago and Northwestern, 38⅜; do preferred, 69⅜; New York Central, 101⅛.

—Manufacturing interests are suffering in other places as well as Pittsburgh. The Wheeling Intelligencer says: For near a month all the iron works in this city have been thrown out of employment. The iron manufacturers claim that boilers should accede to a reduction of wages, and on the other hand the boilers say their present pay is not too much, if enough. When the mills suspended the river was closed, and there was little chance of reducing the large stock of nails, etc., on hand. There was an excess of stock in the glass trade for the demand, and for this reason, some of the flint glass works closed.

—The offer of the proper officers of the Commonwealth to receive proposals for $23,000,000 of 6 per cent, free of tax, loan of the State of Pennsylvania, is attracting the attention of the holders of the overdue State loan, and will, no doubt, call forth active competition for it, one of the most desirable of State loans as it will be. The proposals may be found advertised in another column. Of the entire loan five millions are to be redeemed in from five to ten years; and eight millions in from ten to fifteen years, and ten millions in fifteen to twenty-five years. Over-due loans are to be received by the State Treasurer as the equivalent of cash. There can be no better security than this, especially now, since the State has resolved to abolish all State municipal and local taxation on State loans, and to redeem her bonds as they mature.

—The New York Evening Post remarks on the proposed "Loan Bill," engineered, it is said to put 4 per cent into the hands of the national banks:

"That this loan bill is an unnecessary expedient to meet an imaginary difficulty relative to the compound notes is believed. It seems to be proved by the fact that for a year to come the banks which hold these notes cannot embarrass the government by presenting for payment more than thirty millions; which amount is about equal to the sum they usually hold of government money. Moreover, thirty millions of dollars is so insignificant a sum that it could easily be dealt with. And in any case no new legislation is necessary, for ample powers to preserve the Treasury from embarrassment are to be found in the laws of March 3, 1863, and June 30, 1864. Under these acts the Secretary of the Treasury has the authority to issue Treasury notes, having any time to run not exceeding three years, and bearing any rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, with which to retire any maturing Treasury notes. The compound notes were issued under a law, one section of which provides for renewing or extending the notes when they fall due, and enacts positively that in lieu of any amount of said Treasury notes redeemed or paid at maturity, the Secretary may issue an equal amount of other Treasury notes. Hence it is evident that the Treasury is guarded at all points, and can in no conceivable exigency be taken at a disadvantage."

—Mr. Spinner's letter for Congress, dated January 27, shows that the aggregate taxes paid by him to the National Bank Associations to July 31, 1866, amounted to $8,265,586 40. A communication from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shows the tax on profits and licenses to July 1, 1866, inclusive, were $5,424,084 46, making the total amount of taxes from such associations $13,689,564 86. The indirect revenue derived by the United States from the use of Internal Revenue stamps in the daily business transactions of the National Banking Associations is chiefly paid by the public, and not by banks. The Treasurer states that the duty for the six months preceding January 18, 1867, is in the process of collection and cannot now be reported.

Dr. Elder, the Statistician of the United States Treasury Department, has signified his intention to deliver two lectures during the present month, in this city, on the National Finances and the future financial condition of the country.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, February 13, 1867.

There is a moderate degree of activity displayed in the produce markets, principally, however, in a jobbing way, but with stocks accumulating, and a demand restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants, prices are weak, and, generally speaking, concessions are made in order to effect sales.

GRAIN—No demand for Wheat. Oats dull; may be quoted at 47@48, on track—sale of 200 bush in store, at 50. Barley in demand and prices are a shade higher; sale of 1 car, to arrive, at 95, and 2 cars, on spot, at $1. Rye is still quoted at $1,20 to $1,25, as to quality. Corn is selling in store at 78 to 80 for Yellow; sale of 291 bushels white, on wharf, at 71.

FLOUR—Continues dull and in good supply, and while prices are nominally unchanged, the tendency is downward. We continue to quote at $12 to $12,25 for prime to choice Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to $14 for Winter Wheat, and $16,00 to $17,00 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour is quoted at $7,50 to $7,75 per bbl, and Buckwheat at $3,50 to $3,75 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—The demand for Bacon is light, and prices are unchanged at 10¾ for Shoulders, and 15½ to 15¾ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12½ to 13, for prime leaf. Mess Pork at $21,50 to $22.

BUTTER—Is coming in quite freely, and with a supply fully up to the demand, the market is easier, and prices, although as yet unchanged, are tending downward. We continue to quote prime Roll at 35 to 37.

EGGS—In light supply, but the demand is limited; fresh packed still command 35.

SEEDS—Sale of 7 bbls Flaxseed at $2,65. Timothy and Clover quiet and unchanged.

HAY—Is dull and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, prices are tending downward. Prime baled is offering at $23 to $24, without finding buyers.

OIL—Lard Oil is reported steady, with regular sales at 90 to 93 for No. 2, and $1,10 to $1,12 for No. 1, Cincinnati brands held a fraction higher.

POTATOES—Continue exceedingly dull,—small sales in store, at $2,80 to 2,90 per bbl.

APPLES—Quiet and unchanged. We can report regular sales at $3,50 to $4 per bbl, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, February 13, 1867.

CRUDE—The market for Crude presents no new characteristics worthy of special mention. The demand, both for present and future delivery, continues light, and while buyers and sellers, as a general thing, are still apart in their views and feelings, prices are nominally unchanged. Smith's Ferry oil is selling on the spot, at 7 to 7½, packages returned, and 12 to 12½, packages included, according to quality. Kanawha oil is held at 9½, with but few buyers above 9¼. Venango oil may be quoted at 8½, to be delivered on the opening of navigation—sale of four thousand barrels for April delivery, at 9. We have no late advices from Oil City; at last accounts the market was reported dull at $2,20 to $2,25.

REFINED—The only transactions reported, were the following: 500 for April delivery in Philadelphia, at 30½; 500 for May, at 31; and 500 for June, at 32—showing a decline of fully one per cent per gallon compared with last week, when sales were made for some months at 31, 32 and 33. The decline may be attributed to the very unfavorable character of the foreign news. Free oil may be quoted at 42 to 42½ for twenty-five and fifty barrel lots, and 43 to 44, in a retail way.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Buffum & Kehew	99	Johnston & Paine	50
S. McMahon	110	Jas. Gallagher	52
Nat. Ref. Co	53	J. K. Barbour	55

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—In Cotton goods there is rather more activity at a slightly reduced price. Indian Orchard goods are half a cent lower. Booth, which sold yesterday at 21½, are down to 20. The Laconia, B, are 16½. Standard Sheetings range from 20@22; Pepperill, E, down to 20, K, to 18, Q, to 16, N, to 13; Atlantic, L, selling at 17½, E, at 16½; Bartlett 4-4, at 22½, ¾, at 20, 31 inch, at 18. Narrow bleached goods, which sold yesterday at 11½, are selling to-day at 10½, the better grades are steady as are prints, which are in good request. The print works were all mostly stopped the past few days, on account of the great freshets on Sunday. S. B. Chittenden & Co. have taken a store in Leonard street, temporarily, for the resumption of business. The safe of the firm has just been taken out of the ruins. All their books are safe. They have half a million dollars worth of foreign goods in bond to commence business with.

Louisville Market.

LOUISVILLE, February 13.—Tobacco, sales of 127 hogsheads full rates, at $2,75@33,00, the latter for Hart & Co's. leaf. Flour; Superfine, $10. Wheat; prime red, $2,85. Corn; shelled, 68c. Mess Pork, $21. Prime Lard, in tierces, 12¼c. Bulk shoulders, 8c. Bacon shoulders, 10c@10½c; do clear sides, 10c; do hams, 14c. Prime New Orleans Sugar, 14¼c. Cotton, 29c. Raw Whisky, $2,25.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 13.—Flour dull. Wheat very dull at $2,08 for No. 1, $1,96 for No. 2. Corn steady at 80c for No. 1. Provisions weak; City Mess Pork $1850. Prime Lard 12c. Dressed Hogs dull and drooping at $7,25@7,50.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, February 13.—Money easy, at 5@6. Sterling dull, at 8¼@8⅜. Gold without decided change, opening at 137⅛, declining to 136⅞, advancing to 137¼, and closing at 136⅞. Government stock quiet. Freights to Liverpool firm, with engagements of 15,000 bushels of corn, at 6¼d per sail.

LATEST.

The following are the closing quotations at the Stock Exchange at 4:30 P. M: New York Central, 101⅛; Erie, 59⅜; Reading, 104⅛; Michigan Central, 108; Southern, 73⅞; Illinois Central, 114; Pittsburgh, 81; Northwestern, 37⅞; Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne, 97⅞; Ohio Certificates, 25. Government Stocks are firm. Coupons, '81, 106¼@109¼; do., '64, 107⅜; do., '65, 107⅛; new, 105⅜@105¼; Ten-Forties, 101@101¼; Seven-Thirties, 105⅛@105⅜. Mining shares are quite animated. In Quartz Hill transactions are heavy at 5,40@5,49, closing at the latter. Walkill lead, weak and decline 1 65c. Gunnell Union firmer, selling up to 52. Gregory is heavy at 12,10. There was considerable activity in Desmoines, at 2,50@2,60; Symond's Park rose to 1,70, closing active.

At six P. M. the prices were: Ohio Certificates, 25⅛@26; Central, 101@101¼; Erie, 57⅜@57¾; Reading, 104⅜@104⅜; Michigan Central, 108@108½; Old Southern, 73⅜@73½; Illinois, 115¼@115½; Pittsburgh, 83½@85; Toledo, 119@120; Rock Island, 98⅝@98¾; Northwestern, 37⅝@37⅞; preferred, 68@68¼; Fort Wayne, 98⅛@98⅜.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, February 13.—Cotton steady, but less doing, sales 1,900 bales middling uplands at 33c. Flour dull and 5@10c lower; receipts, 3,828 bbls.; sales, 5 800 bbls.; superfine State western, $9,00@10,15; extra western, $10,15@11,25; choice, $11,30@12,25; round hoop Ohio, $11,00@11,75; shipping brands, $11,80@13,20; trade brands extra Southern, $12,80@16,50, closing dull. Sellers option for February and March. Beef steady; sales 600 barrels tierce. Beef active; sales of 959 bbls tierces at $31@32; prime mess, $35@$36,50. Beef hams in fair demand, sales 240 boxes at $33@33,50. Bacon; quiet sales of 380 boxes at 10¾@10⅝c; Cumberland cut 11⅝c, for short ribbed. Dressed hogs heavy, 9¼@9⅝c, for western; cut meats steady; sales of 300 packages at 8½@9¼c, for shoulders, and 10¼@13c for hams. Lard heavy and lower; sales 850 lbs at 11@12¼c for old, and 12@12⅞c for new; and small lots at 13@13¼c. Butter quiet, at 15@35 for Ohio. Cheese, a moderate demand at 15@21c.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, February 13.—Flour unchanged and dull with but trifling demand, and in order to effect a sale, concessions of from 15 to 20 cents would have had to be made. Wheat held at $2,40 for No. 1 Spring and Winter; but the demand has fallen off and these rates are to some extent nominal. Corn dull and declining; ear 55@58; shelled 60@61 in elevators, and 71@73 in sacks. Oats dull and nominal at 50@51 for No. 1 in elevators. Rye firm at $1,03. Barley dull with no demand. Cotton held more firmly, owing to the large falling off in receipts at New Orleans and Mobile, and at the close there was a good demand for Middling at 29@29½, but it was held at 30. Provisions quiet and unchanged; there was no demand for mess pork or lard, and prices are nominal. Bulk meats are in moderate demand at 7½@9½ for shoulders and sides, and 10¼ for clear sides all loose; shoulders sold at 7½ packed. Bacon quiet. Groceries unchanged; Linseed oil $1,38@1,40. Butter and Cheese firm. Clover seed firm. Gold 136.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13.—Tobacco continues dull, the receipts of the week being only 19 hhds. The prospect of higher prices induces large numbers of rejections. Flour quiet for low grades; super $7@8.50; spring double extra $11@11,75; fall $12@13,25; choice 13,50@14,50. Wheat firmer; fair fall $2,60; good $2,65, prime $2,75; choice $2,80. Corn heavy and languid buyers holding off for lower freights; mixed white and choice yellow range from 77c to 80c; white 80@82c. Oats firm and prices higher; good to choice 68@70c. Barley quiet and unchanged. Rye quiet at $1,28@1,30. Whisky dull and weak at $2,25. Provisions quiet; city mess pork $20; clear sides 12c; half rib 11¼c; shoulders 10c; choice city sugar cured hams 15½c. Hogs scarce at $6@$7.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Flour quiet and prices unchanged. Wheat quiet but firm at an advance; sales at $2,18@2,20 for No 1, and $1,85 for No 2. Corn neglected at 82@82½c. Oats moderately active at 39¾@40c. Provisions dull for nearly all descriptions of hog product, and prices are nominal. Mess Pork held at $18,75@19,00, but no buyers at these figures—no sales to report. Pork in limited request at 15c; moderately active at a decline of ¼c—about 500 tierces sold at 11⅛@12c, principally at 11c. Dressed Hogs easier, owing principally to the unfavorable weather, and prices 5@10c lower, closing at $7,35@7,50 for ordinary lots, dividing on 200 pounds. Live Hogs moderately active at $6,10@6,75 for common to good smooth Hogs.

Baltimore Market.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 13.—Coffee firm, at 13½@13¾c gold for prime Rio. Sugar quiet and steady, at 10⅞@10¾c for refined. Flour—sales of 2,000 bbls. city superfine; $10,25 for low grades; extra $11. Wheat scarce and dull. Corn—White steady; sales at $1,03@1,04 in store; yellow steady, at 95@97c, mostly the latter for prime.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13—Flour quiet; Superfine $8,75; Spring extra $10,50. Wheat steady, white $3,00@3,40. Rye steady at $1,36. Corn active; sales of 10,000 bushels yellow at 98c. Oats steady at 57c. Laguyra Coffee 18½c in gold. Contraband Whisky $1,75. Refined Petroleum in bond 28½c.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was, apparently, at a stand last evening, with about seven and a half feet in the channel. The weather yesterday was cloudy and sultry, and in the afternoon, there were several light showers of rain.

The arrivals include the Grey Eagle, from Parkersburgh, and the Spray, from Cincinnati. The Eagle was considerable behind time, having been delayed several hours by fog. She had a good trip.

The Silver Cloud No. 2 cleared for New Orleans about noon yesterday with a good trip, having among other items, a number of plows. She went in charge of Capt. Samuel Shuman—Capt. Conway will take command at Cincinnati.

The Monongahela wharf above the bridge is in a wretched condition. It is supposed that the wharf-master has sufficient authority to act on the premises, and the sooner he gets at it the better. Passengers going to and from the Brownsville packets encounter mud varying from three to ten inches deep.

At a meeting of the directors of the Pittsburgh and St. Louis Packet Company on Tuesday, Capt. Sam. Shuman was appointed to the position of Superintendent made vacant by the resignation of Captain C. L. Brennan.

The Argosy did not get off for Cincinnati as expected yesterday, but she will leave to-day at noon without fail—passengers and shippers can rely on this. Capt. Vandergrift and clerk Scott are the right men in the right place, and will see that persons having business with the boat receive every proper attention.

Capt. Barnes, the indefatigable agent, went down to Rochester on the Silver Cloud yesterday, to look after freights.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, Sr., is now in turn for New Orleans, and will be the first boat out for that point.

We noted in our last issue that Captain Conway had committed matrimoney. It is now rumored that another young and very clever steamboatman is going to do likewise.

The Silver Lake No. 4, Capt. Todd, is filling up steadily for St. Louis, as is also the Columbia, Capt. Reed, for Nashville. These are both good boats.

The W. F. Curtis left for some point below on Tuesday night—she did not get much of a trip here.

A few more days like yesterday, and then a little rain, will most certainly bring the ice out of the Allegheny. Telegrams from Oil City report weather warm and ice thawing.

The Belleverson had not arrived when we left the landing, although momentarily expected. She is out a week from Cincinnati having been delayed by heavy floating ice. The R. C. Gray was also due here last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

We observe that some of our Cincinnati exchanges report Capts. Sam Shuman and J. L. Rhoads as having left that city on Monday for St. Louis to attend the River Improvement Convention. This is a mistake. Both of these gentlemen were here to-day pursuing their usual avocations.

The tow boat Aarab, sunk by the ice at, or near McKeesport a few days since, has been raised, and will at once be put on the dock for repairs. For this information, we are indebted to Capt. Jas. Gordon, of the Pittsburgh Insurance Company.

The Leonora No. 2 and Kenton were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday. The Maggie Hays arrived there on Monday with a big trip, and after putting out about half of her freight, she left for Louisville, where she will reload for Pittsburgh.

The Kate Robinson, Kate Putnam and Glendale passed Louisville on Monday. The Importer is loading at Cincinnati for Memphis, and the Petrolia for Wabash river.

The Insurance Companies at Wheeling paid $2,000 salvage on the tow boat Sam. Brown. The Brown, it will be remembered, was very roughly used by the ice. The tow boats Tigress and Hornet arrived at Louisville on Sunday last.

It seems that there were quite a number of steamboatmen in attendance at the sale of the Argonaut No. 2 at Louisville, and they all seemed to think that she brought every dollar she was worth—$4,000.

The steamer Mary Swan, recently sunk at Rockport, and more recently raised by the Underwriter No. 1, has gone on to the Dry Dock at Evansville for repairs. Last Thursday the underwriters selected Capt. Symmes, and Mr. J. C. Cavender to value the Mary Swan in her present condition. They decided that her value was $10,666.

The Harbor Bill introduced in the Missouri Legislature virtually abrogates the office of Harbor Master, and places the entire government and control of harbor and levee in the hands of three Commissioners who hold office for four years. The salaries of two of the Commissioners to be $1,500 each, the Mayor being the third.

The Messenger arrived at New Orleans on the 6th inst., and the Lorena (a Pittsburgh boat) arrived at Nashville from St. Louis last Friday with a good trip. She went four miles above that place to take on 70,000 feet of cedar.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday:

The America will be found in port to-day, en route to Pittsburgh, after a successful season in Southern waters. The numerous friends of Capt. T. C. Golding will be glad to take him by the hand again. The C. E. Hillman, or, we should say, the wreck of the Hillman, arrived here Sunday, and lies near the Eureka Docks. She was badly used up by the ice. Capt. Sam Mason and Theo. Fink are now receiving bids for her repairs and estimate the damage at $20,000. In addition to the loss of her chimneys, guards, &c., the cook house and pantry, with all the pantry ware, was lost overboard. The Wheeling wharf boat was landed on the Ohio shore, two miles below Greensburg. It contained considerable freight. The wreckers alongshore skinned the New State of everything valuable they could carry off. They stole all the bed comforts, table ware, and tried to carry off the iron safe, but abandoned the latter, finding it too heavy to get ashore in the ice. A full cargo, including 700 sacks corn, was offering yesterday for the Upper Tennessee, and no boat to take it. Cincinnati shippers ought to sustain a regular line of Tennessee River packets. The bulk of the Tennessee River trade goes to St. Louis, but with a nursing, would come to Cincinnati.
